Sharegain's Keren Halperin elected to Board of ISLA

Appointment another step in Sharegain's mission to democratize and improve securities lending for all market participants.

London, November 1, 2022: - Sharegain, a leading global capital markets fintech, today announced the company's Deputy CEO, Keren Halperin, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the International Securities Lending Association \(ISLA\), the industry's leading trade group. Keren will take her seat from November 1, 2022.

Commenting on her election, Keren said: "I've seen first-hand the pivotal role that ISLA plays in the industry, advocating for securities lending as a force for good and promoting best practices across the industry. I look forward to working with my fellow Board members, as well as other stakeholders, to make the industry a more inclusive and more integral part of capital markets innovation.

"I would like to thank ISLA and everyone who voted for me for the trust they have shown. I will bring mine and Sharegain's resource, and our unique perspective, to the benefit of the entire securities lending industry."

Keren's election to the ISLA board represents another milestone for Sharegain, as it seeks to democratize securities lending and bring new participants into the market.
